

TRUE LOVE, TRUE LUXURY

Soft Pink & White Toronto Wedding

This soft pink and white wedding captured by Storey Wilkins Photography is simply stunning! Anna and Josh were married at Toronto's Adath Israel Synagogue last spring. The couple recited their vows under an exquisite chuppah designed by the ever-inspiring Frank Rea of Forget Me Not Flowers, Oakville. Frank Rea and team, working in conjunction with planner Heidi Gruenspan, transformed the venue into a fairytale-like space for the reception that followed.

We think you'll be completely enchanted by the couple's sweetheart table that was covered in white orchids, hydrangea, and pink roses. The table was framed by a romantic arch that was decorated with flowers, ivy, and a crystal chandelier — total Pinterest-worthy perfection!
