

TRUE LOVE, TRUE LUXURY

A New Year's Eve Wedding with the bride wearing Monique Lhuillier

Shayna and Lenny were married in a spectacular New Year's Eve celebration that brought all of their loved ones together for the most incredible party of the year. The couple exchanged their vows beneath a wrought iron chuppah that was coated in white blooms, greenery, and tulle. On either side of the structure were 6-ft tall shelves filled with lit candles, creating a romantic ambience for the evening ceremony. Guests celebrated the newlyweds in a reception space draped in grey and white velvet fabric and incredible custom floor to ceiling panels displaying picturesque winter scenes. The snowy scenes created the impression that guests were not just in a reception space, but in someone's home- fitting for a New Year's Eve fete celebrating the love that brings people together.
